THE SECOND CALL FOR PAPERS

* A special issue of the Journal of Scheduling is planned in connection with the Third International Workshop on Dynamic Scheduling Problems (IWDSP 2021, July 5-6, 2021, Poznań, Poland).

* The special issue follows the special issue devoted to the Second International Workshop on Dynamic Scheduling Problems (IWDSP 20218, June 26-28, 2018, Poznań, Poland; see https://link.springer.com/journal/10951/volumes-and-issues/23-6).

* Articles on any theoretical or practical aspects of dynamic scheduling problems are welcome. The submitted papers must be original, not previously published or currently under consideration for publication elsewhere.

* All papers submitted to the special issue will be reviewed in accordance with the standard procedures of the Journal of Scheduling.

* Contributions are not restricted to talks that were presented at IWDSP 2021, and submissions are invited from the entire scheduling community, provided that these submissions match the scope of the workshop (see https://iwdsp2021.wmi.amu.edu.pl/).

* Papers should be submitted via the Journal of Scheduling online submission system, following the journal's instructions to authors. Please indicate that your submission is to the 'SI: International Workshop on Dynamic Scheduling Problems 2021'.

* Guest editors of the special issue are: Stanisław Gawiejnowicz (Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań, Poland), Bertrand Miao-Tsong Lin (National Chiao Tung University, Hsinchu, Taiwan), Gur Mosheiov (Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Jerusalem, Israel).

* Extended submission deadline: January 21, 2022
* Decision about acceptance: December 15, 2022
